The Long Goodbye - Chandler Raymond - e-Reading

The Long Goodbye (1953) is a milestone in the genre. This novel demonstrated for the first time that hard-boiled fiction could serve as a vehicle for social comment and critique. While the apparent plot is slower paced and less metaphoric than Chandler's previous novels, the revealed plot shows him using his own life as a material, an

Raymond Chandler - Book Series In Order

Raymond Chandler was born in late July of 1888 in Chicago, Illinois. For almost fifty years of Chandler's life (from 1907-1956), he lived in and was a citizen of Britain. The rest of his life, he spent in America, including the last three years of his life. It was in America that he would die at the age of seventy, in La Jolla, California. At the time of his death, he was working on another
