The Lewis Man is the second in the series and was made available by Audible knowing they did not have the rights to Parts 1 and 3. Who's decision was that? When I went online to 'chat' I was told it was the publisher's fault for not making the other two books available to them but the bottom line is that Audible chose to release the second book only. Go figure. Last I looked a Trilogy was to The Lewis Man \(The Lewis Trilogy, #2\) by Peter May The Lewis Man is the second of The Lewis Trilogy, coming after The Blackhouse which I enjoyed last year. If you plan to read these novels, you should read them in order so as to get to know the people fully, how they are revealed to themselves and each other.
